PROJECTS HIT
N ADIR TRIAL

Former Head of Whitfield Estates Testifies That Plans Were To Reclaim Land Under Bay.

NOT IN VALUATION,
DEFENSE CONTENTS

Counsel for Local Firm To Examine Witness Today To Show That "Misunderstanding" Exists.

Gainesville, Ga., November 28.—(AP) L. B. Whitfield, former president and controlling stockholder in Whitfield Estates, Inc., at Sarasota, Fla., declared here today that part of the estate, under the development program of the Adair Realty and Trust company, of Atlanta, was located in Sarasota Bay, where it was proposed to pump in sand to create lots to be sold.

The testimony of Whitfield came at the end of a long drawn out day in the trial in federal court of Forrest Adair, Sr., Forrest Adair, Jr., Frank Adair and Evans A. Ewin, officers of the company which became bankrupt March 31, 1927. They are on trial for using the mails to defraud.

In a statement made after court recessed until tomorrow morning, attorneys for the defense admitted that it was proposed to build this "new land" at Whitfield Estates in the original development plan, but denied that any part of the land described by Whitfield as being under water was included in the valuation of the development. They declared they would show this in cross-examination of the witness tomorrow.

Bonds For Hotels.

The government already has attempted to show the Adair company sold bonds for construction of hotels in Birmingham, Ala., Knoxville, Tenn., and Little Rock, Ark., and fraudulently used the money obtained on the bonds for the development of the Florida property to the extent of more than a million dollars.

It has been admitted by the defense that the collapse of Florida investments in 1926 materially contributed to the failure of the company. Whitfield testified he organized Whitfield Estates, Inc., in 1924, and became president of the company, owning 3,000 of the 5,000 shares of stock in the development of approximately 600 acres.

Sold Estates in 1925.

He said he sold the Whitfield Estates April 21, 1925, to Frank Adair and Forrest Adair, Jr., of the Adair company. In return, Whitfield said he received $272,000 of class "A" stock and $300,000 worth of class "B" stock in the new corporation, but no actual money changed hands in the transaction.

Whitfield said he gave up his office in the former corporation and did nothing further to do with the business after that time. He said his stock was non-voting.

D. G. Haley of Sarasota, Fla., was elected president of the new company, Whitfield said, adding that "I don't know whether Frank or Forrest Adair, Jr., were officers of the new corporation, but they were directors."

Defense attorneys then exhibited an office blue print of the proposed development.

Decatur Tree
To Be Lighted
At Yuletide

Evergreen Planted in Front of Courthouse To Add Cheer to Occasion.

So that downtown Decatur may be made to reflect a spirit of good will and cheer during the Yuletide season, an evergreen tree planted last Christmas in front of the courthouse by the Decatur Camp Fire Girls this year will be illuminated in the "Light Your Living Trees" campaign being conducted by The Constitution and the Camp Fire Girls.

While numerous Atlantans laid tentative plans for the lighting of trees and lawn shrubbery, announcement came from the headquarters of the Decatur Camp Fire group that in addition to lighting the tree now standing, another tree would be planted at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of December 7 to take the place of a second planted last year, which expired.

With Christmas a matter of some three weeks off, Atlantans should make plans immediately to light their living trees with tiny electric bulbs. In addition to the beauty it brings and in the pride of home, each person who lights shrubbery and trees has the additional satisfaction of knowing that he is making the whole city a brighter and happier place to live in.

And that's just how it should be at Christmas.

Expense of the project is slight. The small bulbs may be purchased at

SYSTEM INDORSED
BY COUNTY BOARD

Commission To Recommend Re-installation on Modified Basis; County Workers To Receive Same Pay.

Fulton county employees will draw the same amount of salary during 1929 that they are drawing this year, the county commission decided Wednesday afternoon. The commission voted to recommend to the state legislature that the fee system be reinstalled in Fulton county on a modified basis.

Details of the resolution the county commission plans to submit to the legislature on the fee system matter will be worked out in the near future. The modified basis on which the system would be installed will be left up to the legislature, according to Walter B. Stewart, chairman of the commission.

The board decided to recommend re-establishment of the fee system on the theory that the fixing of county salaries is not the proper thing to be left up to the commission, as the commission does not employ the workers, most of the employees being elected by the people. The modified fee system would also tend to make the county employees more efficient, Mr. Stewart said.

Explanation of System.

As explained by Mr. Stewart, the modified fee system means that the salaries of county officials depend upon the fees received, but that instead of drawing the major portion of the fees as their salary as was the custom of bygone days, the officials would draw their salaries from the fees up to a certain amount, the remainder of the year's fees to go into the county treasury, or they would be paid a smaller percentage of the fees than was the case under the old fee system, which was abolished with the substitution of the salary system in 1925. Under the modified fee system, as under the old system, the officials would have to pay their employees out of the amounts they receive from fees, thereby taking from the county commission the responsibility of fixing the salaries of the employees.

Faced by a complex problem of making ends meet for the county during 1929, the commission finally decided Wednesday afternoon to compromise on the salary proposition by neither increasing salaries nor cutting any. There had been a number of applications for salary increases, and the commission had been unable to institute them.

County Finances.

The income of the county for 1929, as estimated, will be $4,118,000, while the estimated expenses, including the yearly $2,487,000 deficit, will amount to $7,177,000, thereby leaving the commission in a position where it would have to find $1,125,000. The yearly deficit is not as bad as it sounds, however, as it is merely a matter of county financing where funds are anticipated, it was explained.

U.S.-BRITISH NAVAL PACT CECIL'S HOPE

Accord Between Two Great Anglo-Saxon Nations First Step for Disarmament.

London, November 28.—(United News).—Viscount Cecil, of Chelwood, in a speech before the League of Nations parliamentary committee of the house of commons, said tonight that he believed a naval agreement with the United States might yet be reached.

"The fundamental difficulty encountered in every disarmament discussion rests on the fact that the problem is treated too little as a matter of large politics and too much as a matter for experts with whom the whole discussion is based on an assumption of war and attack," he said.

"On this basis no progress is possible."

Lord Cecil said the first step in any general disarmament agreement must be an accord between the United States and Great Britain.

"It is manifestly to our interest to accept without reserve the United States' absolute parity," he asserted.

"I believe if an agreement could be

Award of Work on Eleven Projects for Total of $623,477.40 Is Recommended by Committee.

WAY IS CLEARED
FOR FINAL ACTION

Board of Education, Bond Commission and School Committee Are Called Into Special Sessions.

Recommending award of contracts for 11 new school projects at an aggregate cost of $623,477.40 and voting to instruct the administration department of the school system to erect the addition at the South Boulevard school at a cost not exceeding $21,000, members of the contact committee of the board of education, the bond commission and city council, Wednesday afternoon cleared the way for final action on the contracts and early start on the improvements.

George Powell, president of the board of education, called a special meeting of the board for 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Will L. Hancock, chairman of the school contact committee, declared that a special session of the commission will be held at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning.

A special session of the school committee of city council will be held at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon in an effort to send the projects to city council at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon for ratification.

Wager Is Recommended.

The general contract for construction of nine of the 11 projects will go to Wager and company if recommendations of the contact groups are accepted.

Estimated costs of the 11 projects was $664,000.

Members of the committee declined to recommend acceptance of a bid of $44,850 for the South Boulevard structure after School Commissioner W. W. Gaines and William A. Verney, bond commissioner from the third ward, asked that the bids be rejected because they were regarded as excessive. No bid was received for the McLendon school addition.

Mr. Gaines and Mr. Verney contended that the administrative department of the school system had successfully constructed an addition to the Tenth Street school, and that the excessive bid for the South Boulevard project when only about $21,000 was set up for it could not be accepted.

Bid Believed Excessive.

"We want the administration department to construct this improvement believing that the bid is excessive on this project alone," Mr. Verney said. "We are asking the administrative department to build this structure and we want it understood that we have been discouraged by them in this request. This is one of the concluding projects of the bond issue and would not put the school board in the building business. It is a matter of whether the children of the community in which the school is to be placed will have school facilities or not. We can not award the contract

Plane To Seek Ark Wreckage
Upon Ararat

Believe Remnants of Noah's Houseboat May Yet Be Found.

Chicago, November 28.—(AP)—Noah's ark, which by Biblical history landed on Mount Ararat after the 40 days of flood, may be the object of an airplane searching expedition so that the ancient ship, if found, may be exhibited at the Chicago world's fair in 1933.

Rufus C. Dawes, brother of Vice President Dawes and president of the world's fair committee, has received an offer to form a corporation for financing such a search.

William H. Strong, a former president of the Aviation Club of Chicago, and a graduate of Moody Bible institute, made the offer, saying "The effort would be as legitimate as hunting for stone ax heads in the Sahara."

If the ark were actually built, as the Bible says, there is a possibility that it is in existence somewhere, Strong said.

"The ark grounded on Mt. Ararat, and the rarity of the ark would tend to preserve the ship," according to Strong, a former president of the Chicago Association of Engineers.

NATIONAL HOLIDAY
DECREE FOR VISIT

Friendship Between Two Republics Stressed in Speech of President Gonzales Viquez.

San Jose, Costa Rica, November 28.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover left here at 7:03 p. m. for the port of Punta Arenas, where he was expected to arrive at 10:30.

Congratulatory expressions of pride in the long and traditional friendship between Costa Rica and the United States were exchanged here today by President Gonzales Viquez and Herbert Hoover, president-elect of the United States. The visit of the distinguished American was made the occasion for a presidential decree, declaring him to be the guest of the nation and proclaiming a holiday throughout this republic.

Mr. Hoover landed at Punta Arenas where he was met by a special governmental delegation and escorted to a special train which carried him to the capital. Five thousand school children lined the streets of this city and waved flags of the two republics as Mr. Hoover and his escort passed in the foreign office where President Gonzales Viquez was in waiting.

"Your mission was a happy inspiration," said the Costa Rican executive in welcoming the nation's guest. "This historic occasion will result in a continuance of the sincere and sound friendship between the United States and Costa Rica, and I believe it will have the same effect as between the United States and all Latin American countries."

Mr. Hoover, in response, acknowledged the "glowing tribute to the accomplishment of my country under the stimulus of our common democracy."

"Nowhere do I know of a greater and more proved example of the beneficence to mankind of our common institutions than that which has been accomplished through the hands of the people of Costa Rica. Their advancement of human welfare is well known in my country and I believe it will have long wished to confirm with my own eyes the progress which you have made."

Mr. Hoover referred to the fact that almost every family in Costa Rica owns a farm or a home and he also emphasized that national integrity had been maintained with an army whose soldiers in number were less than 25 per cent of the number of school teachers in the republic.

President Viquez had said that Costa Rica admired the United States most of all for its spirit of unshakable justice and always had manifested in its relations with his country.

Mr. Hoover in his reply emphasized that the mission of cooperation between the United States and other nations was to build up mutual prosperity and progress.

The president-elect had gone from his train to the United States' legation where he received the American residents of the capital. After meeting President Viquez at the foreign office, they proceeded to the national theater for the luncheon and official welcome. Mr. Hoover was able to inspect the theater and its exhibit of several hundred paintings by Costa Ricans, the first national art show.

$300,000 IS GIVEN
TO MISSION BOARD

Total contributions received by the Baptist home mission board on Honor day, observed recently all over the south, amounted to approximately $300,000, according to announcement made Wednesday at the board of offices. The amount may run slightly above the estimate, it was said.

Georgia led the south with a total of $70,000, while Texas was second with $50,000. The First Baptist church, of Dallas, Texas, of which Dr. George W. Truett, president of the Southern Baptist convention, is the pastor, headed the list of churches with $10,000, while the Ponce de Leon Baptist church, of Atlanta, of which Dr. Luther R. Christie is pastor, was second with $7,500.

Contributions received on Honor day will be employed to make up the huge deficit in the mission board funds laid to Clinton S. Carnes, former treasurer, who is under indictment charging him with embezzling the board's funds.

BRIEF REPORTS FROM BEDSIDE
OF BRITISH KING INDICATE
CONDITION IS UNCHANGEDHOTEL MAID HELD
AS VITAL WITNESS
IN ROTHSTEIN CASE

Slain Gambler's Widow and Former Show Girl Quizzed on His Reputed Narcotic Connection.

New York, November 28.—(AP)—Three women appeared on the stage of the Arnold Rothstein melodrama, one of them the widow of the slain gambler. The federal grand jury called Mrs. Caroline Rothstein, the widow, and Gertrude Ward, a former show girl, to appear before it for what assistance they might give in the investigation into the gambler's reputed connection with a narcotic syndicate.

The third woman was Bridget Fahey, a chambermaid in the hotel where Rothstein was shot. She was held in $5,000 bail as a material witness after she had identified George McManus as the man who occupied the hotel room where the shooting occurred.

McManus, held without bail on suspicion of the murder of Rothstein, is the only one thus far against whom any charge has been laid, but counting Miss Ward, six persons are held in jail as material witnesses.

The $100,000 bail set for James McManus, host at the high stake gambling party believed to have furnished the motive for the shooting of Rothstein, was reduced to $10,000 today, the district attorney saying that McManus had made no attempt to contact anything he knew. The high bail was continued for "Nigger Nate" Raymond, Alvin (Titanic Thompson) Thomas and Sidney Stajer. Bail for Martin (Red) Bove was originally set at $10,000.

McManus, whose overcoat was found in room 349 of the Park Central hotel after Rothstein was shot there, was held only until Friday morning on the short affidavit which charges him with killing the gambler. On Friday he will be given a formal court hearing. He has been offered immunity if he will answer questions and if his answers indicate that he did not actually fire the shot that killed Rothstein, but on advice of his lawyer he had refused to talk.

He is expected to complete his considerations of the homicide Friday morning and may hand down indictments while McManus is being arraigned.

Held for Protection.

The district attorney said late today that he had had the hotel chambermaid held to protect her from persons who he said had threatened her "with all kinds of violence." He said these persons had ordered her to leave the city and go to Chicago.

Of these threats against the woman, who identified McManus as occupant of the room where the shooting took place, the district attorney said:

"This shows we are battling against a very real and serious danger which won't talk is concerned. As long as they insist on battling with us, we'll battle with them."

Asked if he would consent to the release of McManus in $100,000 bail, Banton replied that he wouldn't let him out on $1,000,000. He is charged with first degree murder and that is not bailable.

He said he was confident the crime would be solved and said the charge would be first degree murder, whether the man really is blame for the slaying fired the shot himself or hired a gunman to do it for him.

Hartford, Conn., November 28.—(AP) Coinciding with the celebration of their twenty-fifth anniversary, Governor and Mrs. John H. Trumbull tonight formally announced the engagement of their eldest daughter, Florence, to John Coolidge, son of President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge.

The announcement was made at a supper party held following upon the silver wedding celebration at the Farmington Country club.

It was indicated that the marriage would not take place before the summer, thereby eliminating the possibility of a white house wedding. The ceremony, in all probability, will take place at the Trumbull home in Plainville.

Young Coolidge hurried from his desk in the general offices of the New Haven road to Farmington tonight to be present at the wedding anniversary of his future parents-in-law.

The daughter of the "flying governor" first met the son of the president when he was a student at Mount Holyoke college, not far from Amherst.

After that chance meeting, other meetings followed and John was a frequent visitor both the Mount Holyoke campus and to the governor's home in Plainville.

Eating Is the Major Theme
On This Thanksgiving Day

"Gobble on, you big stiff, you'll get it in the neck today." That's what little "Bumpy" Brown, grandson of Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, is saying to that great big turkey gobbler Thanksgiving morning and it will be echoed and re-echoed by all the little boys and girls in these parts today. Little "Bumpy," like all other kids, is not afraid of the result of the combat with the gobbler and he and the other kids will enjoy one of the greatest days of their young lives today and with the proper administration of castor oil their little tummies will be all right on the morrow.

By PAUL STEVENSON.

Turkeys to the right of you, turkeys to the left of you, gobbling and thundering yesterday but roosting and fricassee today, resting in golden brown magnificence in a sea of aromatic gravy with islands of dressing and lakes of cranberry sauce. That's the main thing about this Thanksgiving proposition that rolls around once each year in all its profit and satisfying gormandization for the delectation of the voracious appetites of youth and age, fat and lean, black and white, rich and poor and the vast army of in-betweeners.

To many people Thanksgiving day means a day of football games and frivolity, to others it means a day of theater and gaiety; to still others it means a day of solemn returning of thanks with prayers but to all of us its most significant theme is eats, eats, eats.

Yes, eats for the meek, eats for the great, eats for the high and eats for the low with old Marse Turkey as the chef d'oeuvre. So slice off a piece of the white meat for me. You say you'll have the dark? How about a gizzard or two? of a drum stick? Yes, there's oyster dressing and cranberries, yes, friend, there's even gravy—cooking in all its enticing coyness.

DOCTORS' BULLETINS
ON KING RETICENT

"Passed Fair Day With Some Sleep" Is Scanty Information Furnished Anxious Public.

London, November 28.—(AP)—Extreme reticence continued tonight to characterize the medical announcements issued at Buckingham palace on the illness of King George. Taken at its face value, this evening's bulletin from Sir Stanley Hewett and Lord Dawson, of Penn, was regarded as favorable, especially when read in connection with a letter which the two physicians sent to the cabinet earlier in the day.

It was noted, however, that again nothing was said about the patient's temperature or pulse and that even the rather stereotyped statement that "his strength was maintained," was omitted this evening. The bulletin said this:

Passed Fair Day.

"The king passed a fair day, with some sleep. Otherwise conditions are unchanged."

It was possible to infer from the statement "conditions are unchanged," that there had been no diminution in the king's strength. The fact that he had obtained sleep was hailed as another favorable sign.

The slightest straws of favorable indications are being grasped in London, so these were comment tonight on the fact that the bulletin was issued earlier than had been usual, showing that the doctors had taken less time to decide on its wording. Only an hour elapsed between their arrival at the palace, and the writing of the bulletin, whereas on recent evenings the interval has been about twice as long.

The letter which the physicians sent to the cabinet was written with the special view of giving information to the public and thereby allaying possible anxiety. In view of the rather full information in the letter, it was supposed that the doctors did not think it necessary to say more in tonight's bulletin.

Officially said at the palace that the physicians, who had only remained with his majesty for about an hour, were very well satisfied with his condition.

No New Complications.

The fact that no further complications have arisen in an illness the progress of which is bound by its nature.

WOMAN'S SLIPPER HEEL SEEN AS MURDER CLUE

Burned Bones Also Found in Louisville Apartment House Furnace.

Louisville, Ky., November 28.—(United News.)—Discovery of a piece of burned bone and the heel of a woman's slipper today in ashes taken from the furnace below the fashionable apartment from which Mrs. Ella McDowell Rogers, pretty young widow, disappeared October 8, strengthened the murder theory held by police.

Phillip Hanes, negro, the apartment janitor, was held for questioning tonight in connection with her disappearance. Recent investigation by police disclosed indications of a cremation in the basement. Mrs. Rogers, widow of a Louisville newspaper man, was 29 years old. While chemists analyzed the furnace ashes today, Mrs. Rogers' brother, Wallace McDowell, Cincinnati undertaker, began proceedings to have her legally declared dead. He also sought the appointment of a curator to handle his sister's $25,000 estate.

McDowell is convinced his sister was murdered and that her body was disposed of, probably in the furnace. He could advance no motive for the murder. Mrs. Rogers returned from a trip on the night of October 8. Her bags were found later, still unpacked. The apartment was in order.

Neighbors caused a quiet investigation to be started, when evidence of a possible murder were found. The negro janitor was held, police said, when a bloody monkey wrench was found in the negro's home.

Burned out grates from the furnace then were found in the city dump. A peculiar gray substance, found on the grates, had the appearance of human ash, chemists said.

Charles Lanforn, 60, a neighbor, told authorities a story that led them to the basement in investigating the murder theory. On the night of October 8, Lanforn said he heard groans coming from the furnace room. Upon reaching the basement entrance, he heard some one breathing deeply and, fearing an attack, Lanforn returned to his apartment.

ment for a gun. His wife, he said, feared he would be killed or injured and persuaded him not to return. The back piece of a bar pin found in the apartment air chamber, resembled a part of a pin worn by his sister, the missing woman's brother told authorities.

The janitor is the only suspect police have held in connection with the woman's disappearance. The wrench found in his home is the only evidence disclosed to link him with the mystery.

FLIERS' GRAVEYARD CLAIMS NEW VICTIM AS PILOT CRASHES

Ligonier, Pa., November 28.—(P)—Carl G. Strickler, 26, of Scottsdale, Pa., test pilot for the Kreider, Reiser Aircraft Corporation, incorporated, of Hagerstown, Md., crashed to his death in a fog near here today and the Pennsylvania mountains, known as the "graveyard of aviators," claimed another victim.

Michael McIntyre, electrician for the Hagerstown firm, who was flying with Strickler, suffered a probable fracture of the jaw and a broken arm. The accident occurred high up in the mountains near Laughlinton, George W. West, of Laughlinton, said the plane entered a fog bank and when it emerged, struck the top of trees and fell.

The plane had turned over as it struck the ground and the pilot apparently had been thrown from the open cockpit with considerable force, his head hitting a rock. McIntyre was taken to a Latrobe hospital.

MARION OFFICIALS HELD AS PLOTTERS WITH BIRGER GANG

Marion, Ill., November 28.—(P)—Arlie Boswell, prosecuting attorney of Williamson county, and Coroner George Bell were arrested here today by United States Marshal John Smith on charges of violating the liquor laws and conspiracy in connection with the liquor activities of the Birger gang. They were ordered arraigned at Benton this afternoon before United States Commissioner Paul Jones. Both men said they were prepared to file their bonds of $10,000 each. Smith also arrested Hezlie Byrne, former chief of police at Johnston City, and Thomas Boyd, former chief of police of Marion, on similar charges.

GERMAN COMPANY MAKING SUPERPLANE

Will Carry Crew of Ten, Fifty Passengers and Twenty Tons of Freight.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, November 28.—(P)—While the merits and drawbacks of the Graf Zeppelin are being discussed, the Dornier Construction Works on the Lake of Constance, an affiliate of the Zeppelin works, are quietly completing a superplane for trans-Atlantic service.

For months the construction of this giant plane has been going on in the secrecy of wartime at the shops of Altenheim on the Swiss side of the lake, from which all visitors have been barred.

This new plane is not intended as an actual enlargement of the Dornier Superplane, but rather as a revolutionizing type with which it is hoped to solve the question whether the airship or the airplane is to be the trans-oceanic conveyance of the future. The body of this plane is not a boat but a substantially constructed ship fit to weather the most tempestuous ocean waves when it may be found necessary to go down on the water. It is built with massive walls and the interior is divided into a series of water-tight bulkheads to prevent the entire ship from being flooded in case water is shipped. The hull is furnished with a keel to steady the ship in a high sea. Its bow is surmounted by a conning-tower comprising the captain's bridge and a cage, a chart and navigation room and a wireless cabin. The span of wings measures 164 feet. Twelve motors arranged in two rows, six on each side, and six behind the wings, will supply a motor energy totalling 6,000-horsepower.

The crew will comprise a captain, two pilots, two wireless operators, one navigation officer, two mechanics and two stewards. There will be room for 50 passengers and for 20 tons of freight. With its full cargo the vessel will weigh 45 tons. Its maximum speed will be 118 miles an hour. It will have a flying radius of 1,800 miles. Over the wings an emergency deck has been erected and between these two surfaces the 12 motors will be mounted.

For the vessel's takeoff the entire motor power will be required to drag it from the water, but in the air only 50 per cent of the available motor energy will be employed.

There will be a saloon larger than that of the Graf Zeppelin and there will be an electric kitchen.

The plane is being built for the German Luftlinie and is to be in service across the south Atlantic via the Canaries, Cape Verde islands and the Island of Fernando Noronha off the coast of Brazil.

MACON BANK HEADS MEET TO WORK OUT CLOSING PROBLEMS

Macon, Ga., November 28.—(P)—Two more conferences were held today by the directors of the Fourth National bank in an effort to devise some method to work out the problems arising from the closing of that institution on Monday.

No announcement was made following the second meeting of the day, but it was known that another conference will be held tomorrow. Three auditors were at work at the Fourth National, under the direction of Clyde J. Evans, who was placed in charge by Ellis D. Robb, chief national bank inspector for the Sixth Federal Reserve district.

Claude Gilbert, who has been named receiver by the comptroller of the currency and who was expected here today, had not arrived up to a late hour, but was expected during the night.

Orville A. Park, special counsel of the State banking department in charge of litigation, arrived here today from Atlanta to look after the state's affairs in connection with the closing of seven small banks in middle Georgia growing out of the closing of the Fourth National.

In connection it was ascertained that the bank of Lewintown, which had been listed as closed, was open and doing business. George Carswell, secretary of state, is president of this bank, and he hurried to Lewintown today on a report that the institution was closed. There was no telephonic or telegraphic communication with Lewintown. Mr. Carswell arrived to find the institution carrying on business as usual.

Mr. Park stated that there was every indication that a number of the small banks that have closed for the purpose of conserving assets, following the closing of the Fourth National, would be reopened just as soon as application can be made of the superintendent of state banks, an examination made and approval given. He said that he had been informed that several of these little banks were in good condition and that there really was no cause for their closing.

2 BOYS, SEEKING ADVENTURE, ROAM 2 DAYS AND RETURN

Clearwater, Fla., November 28.—(P)—Adventure palled on Richard Dend, 13, and Douglas Kersey, 10, both of Palm Harbor, after two days of wandering and sleeping in the open and the two were glad to be back at their homes today. They were found at Weekiwahee Springs and brought back by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Geider, uncle and aunt of the younger boy. They said they ate cakes and candy purchased with their slender hoard of cash, or obtained from motorists. One night they slept in a ditch and the second night in a vacant barn.

HERBERT HOOVER CARRIED MICHIGAN BY 568,634 VOTES

Lansing, Mich., November 28.—(P)—Herbert Hoover carried Michigan by a plurality of 568,634 over Governor Alfred E. Smith, according to the official canvass today of ballots cast for presidential electors.

The total number of votes cast for electors was 1,372,082, about 2,000 less than the total for governor. Hoover's majority over all presidential candidates was 406,680.

Congressman Faust Stricken With Sudden Illness in Washington

Washington, November 28.—(P)—Representative Charles L. Faust, of Missouri, was stricken with a sudden illness at his hotel here today and his physician said there were some symptoms of paralysis, although there had been no definite paralytic stroke. Mr. Faust, who is serving his fourth term in the house, was treated at Emergency hospital by Dr. J. Ernest Mitchell. A short time after entering the hospital his condition was described as fair. Another examination will be made later in the day. The representative's home is in St. Joseph, Mo.

Coolidges in Old Dominion PRESIDENT AND WIFE AT SWANANNOA For Thanksgiving Holiday

BY ROBERT MOOREFIELD,
United News Staff Correspondent.
Swannanoa Country Club, Va., November 28.—President and Mrs. Coolidge were in the heart of the Old Dominion tonight, at the palatial Swannanoa Country club in the picturesque Blue Ridge mountains, prepared for a Thanksgiving holiday schedule of recreation and sport.

Arriving at Swannanoa at 2 p. m., the president and his immediate party departed at once for the estate that will be the Coolidge home over the Thanksgiving week-end.

A committee of club officials greeted the chief executive and first lady on their arrival at Swannanoa, a three-story marble building modeled after an old-world structure. Mrs. Coolidge held in leash her favorite pet, Terrible Tim, a red Chow, when she inspected the terraced grounds on the spacious estate a brief time after her arrival. Three other white house pets—King Cole, a German police dog; Diana, white collie, and Bessie, a young shepherd dog—were to follow Terrible Tim to the temporary home of their master and mistress.

Emory Council of Deans ONLY TWO CONVOCATIONS TO BE HELD Bars 'Little Commencement'

Emory university no longer will hold "Little Commencement." This annual period of festivities which has been held each spring immediately following the close of the winter quarter of work has been banned, according to announcement made Wednesday by the council of deans at Emory. The council of deans at Emory came the additional word that hereafter Emory will hold only two convocations each year instead of the customary four. The main graduation exercises will come in June as usual, and another convocation will be held August for the benefit of the summer school students. Students will be given their diploma upon completion of their required work, but as before, however.

Discontinuance of the "little commencement" week came as a shock to the student body, as this occasion was eagerly anticipated throughout the year. At this time the Emory campus was the scene of house parties, receptions, teas and dances were held at local clubs. Debutantes came from all over the south as guest of the students.

SAVANNAH WOMAN DROVE FATALLY HITS MAN ON ROAD

Savannah, Ga., November 28.—(P)—Fred W. Bunker, 33 years old, is dead as the result of injuries received tonight near the thirteen-mile post on the Ogeechee road when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. A. J. Smith, 23 years old, of Savannah. Bunker's skull was fractured.

Mrs. Smith did not stop after the accident but later reported to county police headquarters that she had fled from the scene thinking Bunker and his companion, C. G. Snipes, were hold-up men. With Mrs. Smith were Mr. and Mrs. E. Fickson, of Evans banks, Fla., parents of Mrs. Smith. Mr. Fickson at first tried to convince police that he was driver of the car but it was definitely established Mrs. Smith was the operator, police said. She was released after giving bond for $1,000 on a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

ATLANTA CIVIC COUNCIL PLANS AID FOR CHEST

Meeting at the city hall Wednesday morning the Atlantic Civic council pledged its hearty cooperation to the Community Chest and urged that the chest be filled this year. It further volunteered to aid in administration of the chest and disbursing of its funds by supplying volunteer workers to establish contact between the needy and the charitable associations represented in the chest.

Bayne Gibson, prominent worker for the chest, was the principal speaker and he clearly outlined purpose, plans and needs of the chest for the coming year. At his suggestion the council approved the plan of enlisting social workers from council, schools and the churches to cooperate with the regular administrative machinery of the chest in such a way as to insure greater efficiency in administration of funds.

STUDENT FORGERS AROUSE COLLEGES TO TAKE ACTION

Berkeley, Calif., November 28.—(P)—Alarmed at the number of students who are "forging" their way through college, University of California authorities today took steps to stop the practice.

Comptroller Robert G. Spronk announced that fictitious checks presented in payment of tuition last year caused the university to lose $4,800.

HIGH HONOR PAID DR. HENRY BRADLEY

Tribute Is Paid by Congregation
in Portland.

On the occasion of his recent resignation from a charge in Portland, Me., Dr. Henry Stiles Bradley, former Atlanta clergyman and one-time vice president of Emory college, was signally honored and complimented, not only by his own congregation but also by numerous friends of all creeds.

After having been given an ovation by his own church a dinner was tendered for him under auspices of the Portland chamber of commerce. On this occasion scores of persons of all creeds assembled to honor the man who had attained such universal esteem in his eight years as pastor of the State Street Congregational church.

The chief justice of the state supreme court spoke in praise of the beloved pastor as did a member of the governor's council. The Catholic bishop of Portland expressed the sorrow of his fellow churchman over Dr. Bradley's departure. A prominent Hebrew doctor spoke on behalf of his people and a dean of the Episcopal cathedral represented his bishop, who had been called out of town. Dr. Bradley resigned his pastorate in Portland because of ill health after eight years of brilliant service. His congregation urged him to take a year's leave of absence, but Dr. Bradley did not feel sure that he could return at the end of that time, and asked that his resignation be accepted. After leaving Portland he started upon a leisurely motor trip toward the south with the expectation of spending some time in Florida for his health.

In Atlanta Dr. Bradley was pastor of the Trinity Methodist church for several years in the early 1900's, leaving here to take a charge in St. Louis. He was vice president of Emory college for a number of years when that institution was located at Oxford.

MRS. C. D. WILSON INJURED IN AUTO AND TRUCK CRASH

Mrs. C. D. Wilson, of 484 Windsor street, suffered cuts and bruises about the face Wednesday night when the automobile in which she was riding crashed into a truck on Jonesboro road, near the Macedonia church. Mrs. Wilson was taken to Grady hospital and was released after receiving treatment. Jack Johnson, driver of the machine in which Mrs. Wilson was riding, escaped injury as did the three negro occupants of the truck. The accident was investigated by County Police Lieutenant R. F. Jordan.

DEFECTIVE SAFETY LAMP SEEN CAUSE OF BLAST KILLINGS

Williamson, W. Va., November 28.—(P)—A defective safety lamp tonight was believed by mine experts to have ignited a small pocket of gas causing a local explosion that killed three officials of the Glogora coal company in a Hinder Coal company mine near Humberville, Ky., 29 miles from here. The bodies, burned and disfigured, were found and brought to the surface today by rescue squads that had been searching for the men since last Tuesday.

The victims were Richard Williams, 30, of Huntington, W. Va., president of the Glogora company; Charles H. Beidenmiller, 37, of Huntington, general manager for the company, and Charles D. Schlegel, 40, of Glo, Ky., superintendent of the concern's Kentucky operations. Williams was a son of M. W. Williams, Philadelphia coal operator, and was a Princeton graduate.

Free More Lepers.

Carville, La., November 28.—(United News.)—Eight more patients of the government leprosy here will be freed soon, it was learned today. Their liberations will follow closely that of the North Carolina mountaineer, John Early. Modern treatments and use of chaulmoogra oil is credited with arresting the disease.

A NEW POWERPLANT

— which makes every Packard a Packard Eight

THE new Packard eight-line powerplant for its 126 and 133-inch wheelbase models reflects Packard's 30 years of experience in building and servicing all types of motors.

The eight-line engine originated in Europe where it was developed by those manufacturers who have since abandoned the V-type for it. But Packard was the first prominent American maker to introduce it.

Packard's lead was promptly followed by other American builders so that, whereas prior to 1923 thirty American manufacturers of multi-cylinder cars were making V-type motors, today there are but four.

Whereas, previously, twenty-two European manufacturers had been marketing V-type motors, today not a single one is still using them in stock car production.

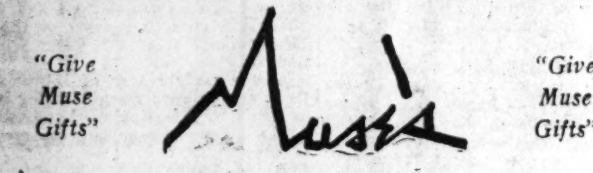

Five years of constant study of the straight eight, based solidly on Packard's successful development of this type engine for its 136 and 143-inch wheelbase cars, had so firmly proved the basic merits of the eight-line principle that Packard decided to completely standardize on eights.

With the new motor Packard puts eight-cylinder smoothness, power and performance at the command of thousands who in the past did not feel they could afford the supreme luxury of transportation which a Packard Eight provides.

You may demonstrate the new Packard Standard Eight at any time. Come in or phone and one will be placed at your disposal. We promise you a new experience in motoring luxury.

The Packard Standard Eight 5-pass. Sedan costs but $2435 at the factory.

MOTION PICTURES TELL OF UTILITIES' GROWTH

Talk by R. E. Child Features Meeting Sponsored by Georgia Power Co.

The rapid advancement of power companies throughout the United States in recent years was recounted by means of four reels of motion pictures and a short talk by R. E. Child, of Bonbright & Company, of New York, at a luncheon meeting held at the Atlanta Athletic club Wednesday afternoon, sponsored by the Georgia Power company and attended by some 75 prominent Atlanta business and business men.

Introduced by P. S. Arkwright, president of the Georgia Power company, who presided at the meeting, Mr. Child gave a brief history of the recent development of "super-power" lines formed by the interconnection of different companies in order to extend service in an economic manner. He pointed out that many companies who had maintained separate existence for years had found it advantageous to hook up with neighboring lines.

Mr. Child stated that 700 millions had been invested in power development and extension during 1927 and that this amount would be increased by 200 millions this year. The gross earnings for 1927 he put at $1,750,000,000.

Following this talk, four reels of motion pictures were shown, which gave a clear picture of the gigantic plants in various parts of the country which are producing millions of horsepower annually, and also of the many uses which electricity is put to today, including everything from running pumps to making locomotives.

Berry School Endowment Fund Drive Launched

New York, November 28.—(Special.)—Prominent persons of the business and social world attended a dinner given to Miss Martha Berry at the Hotel Roosevelt here last night. The occasion marked the beginning of a campaign to raise $2,500,000 for a permanent endowment fund of the Berry schools at Mount Berry, Ga., of which Miss Berry is founder.

The plan of the campaign is to get 1,000 persons to contribute $2,500 each to commemorate their birthdays. At the dinner it was announced that 100 persons had already promised to contribute "birthday" contributions. In addition to this, $31,000 has already been received from friends of the school. Before the evening was over subscriptions amounting to $40,000 were turned in. Several famous Americans were commemorated by "birthday" subscriptions. Miss Berry explained the purpose of the campaign was to make it possible for her to devote all her time to the welfare work of the students, instead of spending much time on raising funds for the school, as in the past.

The dinner, which was attended by 1,200 persons, was presided over by Mrs. John Henry Hammond. The speakers included Miss Berry, Professor William S. Myers, Mr. Douglas Robinson and Mrs. Hammond. Miss Berry explained the purpose of the campaign was to make it possible for her to devote all her time to the welfare work of the students, instead of spending much time on raising funds for the school, as in the past.

MITCHELL SPEAKS AT FOREIGN TRADE CLUB GATHERING

Delegates from 13 states and 29 cities of the United States and from 11 foreign countries were represented at the second Southeastern Foreign Trade conference held in Atlanta last week, according to a report made by Harry O. Mitchell, secretary of the Southeastern Foreign Trade council, and district manager of the federal department of commerce, before the semi-monthly luncheon of the Atlanta Foreign Trade club, which was held Wednesday noon at the chamber of commerce.

Other speakers at Wednesday's luncheon were T. R. Gress, assistant state attorney general, and R. S. Barker, executive vice president, Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

Charles F. Hoke, president of the Atlanta Foreign Trade club, presided. Guests of the occasion were C. W. Wenz, of Wiesbaden, Germany, representing the Raymond & Whitecomb Tons; John A. Scott, of Havana, publisher of the "Miami-Palm Beach-Havana Gleaner," and Emilio Volpi, vice president of Il Circolo Italiano di Atlanta.

An announcement was made that negotiations were under way between the Atlanta Foreign Trade club, the chamber of commerce, and other groups, and the Mexican government to establish a Mexican consulate in Atlanta following the visit to Atlanta last week of A. Herceas, commercial agent of the National Railways of Mexico.

Demonstration Homes Open This Afternoon and Tonight

PUBLIC INVITED TO PAY HOLIDAY CALL OF INSPECTION

While Atlantans observe a holiday from work today, The Constitution's master model home at 705 Morningstar drive and the model home at 1643 Rock Springs road will be open both afternoon and night.

For the benefit of those who have an off day from the office, the two demonstration homes will be open from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock tonight. As a general rule, the homes are open on week days only from 2 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, but the customary Sunday hours of 2 to 10 have been established for Thanksgiving day.

Hostesses at the two beautiful homes will be on hand to welcome all visitors and answer questions relating to furnishing or construction. The homes opened last Sunday, and on that day and every succeeding one have attracted heavy attendance and warm commendation.

Water Carnival Planned Today At Warm Springs

Warm Springs, Ga., November 28.—(P)—Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor-elect of New York, put away politics tonight with the announced intention of devoting his efforts toward making a happy Thanksgiving day for infantile paralysis patients here.

He will play a secondary role, he said, to the king of the day, Gordon Foster, 11, of Springfield, Mass., and his queen, Miss Mary Frances Jasper, 3, of Chicago, at a water carnival to open the new $30,000 pool given by Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Ford.

He plans to be a member of the patients' team which will play a water football game and at night he will be toastmaster at a Thanksgiving banquet for patients and visitors.

Mr. Roosevelt said he hoped to have George Foster Peabody, Sr., trustee of the foundation, as the principal speaker at the banquet but Mr. Peabody had not yet arrived although expected. Colonel Frederick Stuart Greene, superintendent of public works, who is here with Mrs. Greene, also will speak.

The governor-elect declined to discuss business today except to say that he had made arrangements for a visit to Albany some time in December with Mrs. Roosevelt to see about accommodations for a very large Roosevelt family in the governor's mansion. There will be four sons, a daughter, a son-in-law, a granddaughter, and my mother, to say nothing of 16 police dogs and two scotties.

Colonel Greene said arrangements had been completed for construction of elevators in both the executive mansion and the state house for convenience of Mr. Roosevelt, who is convalescing from infantile paralysis.

SON OF MURDERED MAN SENTENCED IN LARCENY CASE

Pleas of guilty to charges of larceny from the house brought W. J. Weaver, son of W. L. Weaver, who was found shot dead in an alley near his home last Friday morning, and Charles Cooper terms of one and a half to three years each Wednesday in Fulton superior court.

The schools have grown enormously and Miss Berry has raised personally $150,000 each year to supplement the income received from her present endowment and the small tuitions the students are able to pay.

NEGRO IS GIVEN THREE-YEAR TERM ON TWO CHARGES

Clayton Watson, negro, was sentenced to serve three years, following his conviction Wednesday in Judge G. H. Howard's division of Fulton superior court on charges of burglary and simple larceny.

Watson was given from two to five years on charges of burglarizing the garage of J. L. Pitts, at 517 Simpson N. W., and 12 months on a charge of simple larceny involving the theft of a motorometer and other articles from Guy Dobbs, of 850 Ashby circle, S. W.

Y a a b Temple Nobles Will Give Dance Friday Night

All nobles are requested to show their 1928 cards and to wear their ties. Any visiting nobles from other temples are cordially invited to attend. Admission will be $2 a couple.

CONDEMNED ROW' PLOT FOR LIBERTY FOILED

San Quentin Murderers Well Laid Plans Discovered by Guard.

San Quentin State Prison, Calif., November 28.—(United News.)—A well prepared plan for the escape of murderers in San Quentin's "condemned row," which might have been successfully completed within 24 hours, was discovered by a prison guard tonight.

Four men, condemned to hang on the gallows here, had won the assistance of two others in the main prison building to remove bricks from the wall of their cells and had secured rope with which to drop to the ground.

The condemned slayers involved were John Malone, wife slayer from Los Angeles; Edgar Lapierre, who killed a police officer in Oakland; Louis Lazarus, one of three bandits awaiting execution for the murder of a bank teller in Oakland; and Perry Coen, former Kansas sentenced for killing a married couple in King county.

They were helped by Roy Cook, serving a long term for robbery in San Francisco, and Howard J. Albany, under a life sentence from San Diego; James B. Holohan, warden of the prison said.

Consider this new slogan and its application to your particular problems! The "Three P's"—The Product, The Place, The Paper.

After all, doesn't this represent the very Alpha and Omega of all selling? Given the right product, distributed in the right place and advertised through the right paper—aren't sales bound to come?

The first P—Your Product! Any consideration of advertising must necessarily be predicated on the assumption that your product is "right."

We submit as The Place—ATLANTA! Right now, and for months, it has been outstanding for low-cost sales returns. A population of more than 317,000, with concentrated retail outlets, simplifies the problem of proper distribution. Huge municipal construction projects and industrial activity are rolling up big payrolls.

Atlantans are making and spending money! Department store sales in August were rated 129.7 as against 84.7 for the United States as a whole.

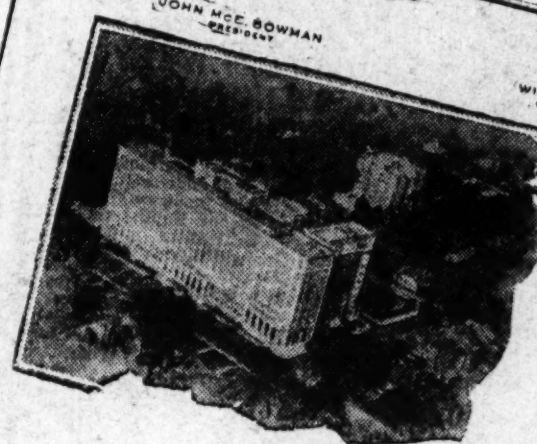

And finally—the last of the "Three P's"—The Paper! For sixty years The Atlanta Constitution has been a dominating influence in Atlanta. But it is not only the oldest newspaper here, it is also the largest! In the city, in the 75-mile suburban trading area and in total circulation coverage, The Constitution leads all other Atlanta newspapers.

Mr. Clark Howell, Jr.,
Atlanta Constitution,
Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Mr. Howell:

I cannot help but write to you in order to express my reaction in having read the advertising copy of the Atlanta Constitution in the November issue of "Printers' Ink" entitled the "Three P's".

I think this is somewhat the best copy I have ever read and the Constitution and all connected with the preparation of this copy are to be congratulated. It is just another fundamental demonstration of "carrying on" of that wonderful old newspaper which you are connected with and which I know you as well as all of us are proud of.

Such copy as this could not help but do good for all and when we help others it always rebounds to our credit. Why not reprint this ad in the Constitution and let all readers of the Constitution see and know of the good work you are doing?

With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Yours very sincerely,
Wm. Candler

The suggestion, Mr. Candler, and the spirit prompting it, are both appreciated!

MANLEY BRIEF FILED WITH SUPREME COURT

Argument on Appeal of Former Banker To Be Presented Monday.

Washington, November 28.—(AP)—In preparation for the argument on Monday next of the appeal of W. D. Manley, the Atlanta, Ga., banker, his counsel filed with the supreme court today a brief giving the grounds on which they contend his conviction for fraudulent insolvency growing out of the failure of the Farmers and Traders Bank of which he was president should be set aside, together with his sentence of nine to ten years' imprisonment.

In attacking the validity of the section of the Georgia banking act of 1919 under which he was convicted, counsel contended that it was vague, indefinite and uncertain, with no ascertainable standard of guilt fixed, leaving to question to the views of different courts and juries; that persons accused under it are not given proper information as to the nature and cause of the charges against them, and that it makes mere insolvency the presumption that the failure of the bank was caused by fraudulent and criminal conduct of the accused.

The brief asserted that the statute "simply delivers the defendant to the jury and without prescribing any real standard for determining his guilt, directs the jury to fix a standard according to its own judgment as to the way in which he has handled the affairs of the bank," insisting that the outcome is dependent upon whether the jury, declared by counsel to be usually ignorant of bank management, believes the affairs of the bank were managed fairly and with ordinary care. The statute was denounced as "a convenient means by which a community excited over the failure of a bank may send the president and directors to the penitentiary."

Under usual proceedings the case would not have been reached by the supreme court for consideration until late next spring. If at all during the first term but the court on its own motion advanced the hearing to expedite its final disposition. The bank failed in 1926.

Three Emory Men Elected To National Honorary Fraternity

Three students at Emory university, Wednesday received official recognition from Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary leadership fraternity, the Omicron Delta Kappa, at Emory holding the public tapping ceremony at the chapel exercises, at noon Wednesday.

The students selected for the highest honor that can come to an Emory man were Robert M. Strozier, of Tampa, Fla.; Jack Lee, of Covington, and Glenn M. Elliott, of Norcross. Corner M. Woodward, dean of men at Emory, also received recognition by the circle Wednesday, one member of the faculty being tapped each year.

The men selected were the first ones to be named for 1928-29. They were given the honor for outstanding ability as leaders in student activities on the campus.

Strozier is a senior and the editor of the "Campus," the annual publication of the student body. He holds many other honors, being a member of the D. V. S. senior honor society, secretary-treasurer of the senior class, and president of the Phi Gamma Literary society. He is a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Lee also is a senior and is a fraternity brother of Strozier. He has been prominent in athletics at Emory, having won his letter in several sports. He is a member of the student activities council this year and holds many other lesser positions of honor. He also is a member of D. V. S. senior honor society.

Elliott is one of Emory's champion debaters, having debated each year since he was a freshman. He is now a senior in the law school, from which he will get his degree in June of next year. In addition to having met the English debaters from Oxford university in debate, he has won numerous honors in oratory and declamation.

Dean Woodward is a professor of sociology at Emory, in addition to holding down his duties as dean of men. He has been at Emory for several years, and has been prominent in the campus activities of the faculty. Dr. Allen H. Buncie, prominent Atlanta physician and alumnus of Emory, addressed the student body on leadership, following the ceremony.

NEW POLICE SCANDAL STIRS LOS ANGELES

Probe of Aimee Case Reveals Police Officials Accepted Robbery Graft.

Los Angeles, Calif., November 28.—(AP)—Treading its way through the maze of testimony relating to the charges of bribery against District Attorney Asa Keyes and the intimate connection between these charges and the mysterious disappearance two years ago of Aimee Semple McPherson, pastor of Angelus Temple here, the county grand jury has run into another scandal.

A special investigator for the jury, who refused to let his name be made public, said today the body had before it testimony that six Los Angeles police officers, had obtained approximately $75,000 to conceal facts concerning several big robberies here.

The investigator said three cases were specifically referred to in information before the grand jury and that one of the men involved was a "high ranking police official."

The police official, the investigator said, has agreed to appear before the grand jury and was quoted as saying, "I was sitting in a spot with a gun at my back and couldn't help myself, but I'm going to come clean now."

The tip to the grand jury concerning the six policemen came from three Los Angeles police officers who testified before the jury. One of the robberies in which the policemen are alleged to have suppressed facts was said to be that of the Pacific National bank last spring when $500,000 was taken.

The revelation was made today as the grand jury was summoning the Rev. J. W. Aitken, of Angelus Temple, in connection with reports that Mrs. McPherson had spent more than $100,000 in defense of conspiracy charges brought against her and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, following her return after an absence of several weeks.

Account records and check books dating back to the time of the evangelist's disappearance were brought before the grand jury by the minister. Investigators also announced that seven other persons connected with the temple would be summoned.

Mrs. McPherson is expected to return here tomorrow from her European tour.

Working on one case and talking about another, the grand jury took enough time from its investigation of the McPherson case to announce that perjury indictments would be returned against four police officers who testified in the trial of City Councilman Carl I. Jacobson.

Jacobson was arrested about a year ago on a morals charge with Mrs. Carl Grimes. Subsequently Mrs. Grimes called the arrest a "frame up" engineered by underworld characters and police officials.

FORMER BANKER CITED IN DEAL FOR $285,000

Ex-Secretary of State and Two Others Named in Columbus Writ.

Columbus, Ohio, November 28.—(AP)—A former Columbus bank president and a former secretary of state, along with two others, were indicted on charges of embezzlement here today in connection with the disposal of $285,000 involved in a deal transacted for the defunct Cities Mortgage company, of this city.

Those under indictment are Frank I. Stein, former president of the Ohio National Bank of Columbus, and Harvey C. Smith, former secretary of state; A. E. Querinjean, and Ray H. Patterson, all former officers of the mortgage company.

All but Stein had been indicted for embezzlement previously in connection with the deal.

The $285,000 was involved in the sale of the Joint Land bank securities held by the mortgage company, a syndicate of which Stein was a trustee.

Ganna Gets Trial Over the Radio This Afternoon

New York, November 28.—(United News.)—Ganna Walska will make her final try for fame as an opera singer this afternoon, when she will face a microphone at station WEAF, of the National Broadcasting company, as a prelude to a concert tour.

Mme. Walska, in private life Mrs. Harold McCormick, has made strenuous efforts and has gained international publicity in her fight of years to "put herself across."

She has not sung in this country since 1923, when a concert tour of Elmira, Detroit, Boston and New York ended in complete failure. Since she has confined her singing to Europe, where her efforts in most instances, critics said, ended in "laughter and hisses" instead of the bravo and encore she sought.

Even if the tour she plans is not a success, Mme. Walska will remain in newspapers for a time, for her appeal against a customs assessment on more than $1,000,000 worth of jewels she sought to bring into this country duty free will be heard December 18.

HUNTERS SHOOT THE SAME BEAR AT SAME TIME

Milwaukee, November 28.—(AP)—Unknown to each other, two Milwaukee friends, Ben Scherer and William Zitrow, were hunting in northern Wisconsin near Mercer.

Scherer encountered a big black bear and fired. Zitrow saw a bear and he fired.

Scherer rushed forward to see his prize, as did Zitrow. Surprised, they greeted each other near the dead bear. "Hello, Ben," said Zitrow, "isn't that a fine bear I shot?"

"Why, I shot him, Bill," Scherer countered.

An argument followed and they finally agreed that both had come upon the bear from different directions and had fired simultaneously so that only one shotgun report was heard. There was the evidence of their marksmanship—one bullet through the lower jaw, and another in the left side.

Both claimed him and neither would sell his rights.

The bear was brought back to Milwaukee, and Gerald Lacher, Jr., a mutual friend, was chosen to take the role of Solomon today and divide the bear, to provide the piece de resistance of their feasts tomorrow.

Strong Team Of Stanford Reaches East

Pop Warner Brings Eleven Across Continent for Battle With Army.

Rye, N. Y., November 28.—(United Press.)—The Stanford football squad arrived here late today and took up quarters at the Westchester-Biltmore Country club to await its intercollegiate game with Army at Yankee stadium, New York, Saturday. It will be the first eastern appearance of the Stanford eleven.

The squad left Berkeley, Calif., Saturday night after the California game and spent four days and nights in a Pullman. Coach Pop Warner reported the squad in good shape, however, except "for a few colds."

The first workout will be held on the polo field here Thursday morning. In the afternoon the entire squad of 28 players will attend the New York U-Reggie Aggie game at Yankee stadium. Another brief workout will be held Friday afternoon.

Neither Coach Warner nor Captain Biff Hoffman would make a prediction on the Stanford-Army game.

"Army has the better team of the season's record," Warner said, "but the Army also has a better record than Notre Dame. We hope to do as well as Notre Dame—that's all we ask."

"Army will have its hands full," Captain Hoffman said.

Big Six Closes Its Season Today

Kansas City, November 28.—(AP)—Thanksgiving day games will close Big Six football for the season.

Two games will involve conference rankings—Missouri-Oklahoma at Norman and Nebraska-Kansas Aggies in Lincoln. Iowa State plays Marquette, a non-conference foe, in Milwaukee. Kansas finished its season last week.

The game at Norman looms as the most interesting finale.

Nebraska, by winning from the Aggies, can end with a clean slate in the circuit and a Big Six title. Missouri, by beating Oklahoma, will clinch second place, if now holds it. Should the Aggies perform a miracle and beat the Huskers, Missouri could tie for the title by a victory. Oklahoma can tie Missouri for second by winning tomorrow's game. Should Missouri and Nebraska both lose, Nebraska would still be champion.

No post-season games are planned by any Big Six eleven. Had Nebraska beaten the Army and thus been eligible for consideration as national champion, the Huskers might have been invited to the Pacific coast.

Huge Crowd Due To See Gator Tilt

Jacksonville, Fla., November 28.—(AP)—Florida's largest and most colorful football gallery of the season is expected to fill the municipal stadium here tomorrow afternoon for the annual Thanksgiving day gridiron classic between the University of Florida and Washington and Lee.

Florida's "fighting Gators" with an unbeaten and untied record, are favorites to continue their rampant march toward sectional and national football distinction. The W. and L. Generals arrived tonight in high spirits and confident of upsetting the Floridians, but their record, showing seven successive defeats, is not such as to cause undue excitement in the Gator camp. The Gators already have four victories and a tie in five previous general encounters.

Traffic Is Cut Down.

Faculty objection somewhat cut down the annual flower cavalcade between Ann Arbor and Columbus for the annual Ohio-Michigan game. In other years the road has been black.

10,000 Will Watch Oglethorpe Play Moccasins at Chattanooga

S. I. A. A. Tilt Will Either Make or Break Near Championships; Petrels Feared.

Chattanooga, Tenn., November 28 (Special).—Some 10,000 football fans, the largest crowd of the 1928 season, will pour into the concrete stands and wooden bleachers of Chamberlain field stadium tomorrow to see the University of Chattanooga Moccasins and the Oglethorpe Petrels clash in their annual Thanksgiving grid drama.

Activities will begin promptly at 2 o'clock. And what drama it should be with two of the mightiest aggregations in the S. I. A. A. throwing every ounce of energy into the conflict, the one battling for a claim to the conference championship, the other hoping to elevate its own standing by a victory over the near-champions.

This colorful Turkey day classic will mark the last local appearance of the 1928 edition of the Moccasins and five of Coach Thomas' warriors will be appearing in Chamberlain field in the blue and gold uniform of Chattanooga for the last time. Their only remaining game takes them to Lakeland to meet the Southern eleven.

Outlook Brightens.

One week ago the outlook for this football machine, groomed by the tilt mentor who gained his football knowledge while playing for none other than Knute Rockne, was not as bright as it is today. Then it seemed that several of the leading roles were to be carried by reserves, the regular actors being forced onto the sidelines by a varied assortment of ills. However, a long rest and strict medical attention has worked magic with the casualties who swept the Moccasin encampment and the eleven battle-scarred warriors who rode rough-shod over the toughest of opponents up to the Mississippi game will answer the starting whistle.

Bill Ward, that mighty line-plunger who wrote his name in flaming letters across the pages of Chattanooga football history on the afternoon of the Moccasin massacre of the Centenary Gentlemen, will be fullback; Captain Cleve Barret and Clarence Lautzen-

IOWA AWARDED BIG TEN TITLE FOR 1928 SEASON

Iowa City, Iowa, November 28.—(AP)—The University of Iowa football team has been awarded the title of western conference champions under the rating system devised by Professor Frank C. Dickinson, of the University of Illinois.

Although Illinois won the championship on a percentage basis, Professor Dickinson explained that Illinois played no team which finished higher than fifth in the Big Ten standings. Iowa, he said, was entitled to championship recognition by virtue of its record against first division opponents.

In presenting the Jack Bissell trophy to the Iowans, Professor Dickinson said no team should claim a football championship until it had demonstrated "it was better than the rest."

St. Johns To Add Rowing, Hunting

Annapolis, Md., November 28.—(AP)—Fox hunting and rowing are to be added to the athletic program of St. Johns college, President Enoch B. Garey told the students in a statement issued today.

The board of governors has obtained an option on 150 or more acres adjoining the present campus and this land will be available for fox hunting. Garey expressed hopes that a cavalry troop would be established at the college.

heiser, two hard-hitting, elusive, tricky runners, will command the half-back positions, and Donny Overmyer, who boots them mile and almost as high, will take the quarterback role.

Aggressive Ends.

Chuck Bradwood and Tommy Thompson will protect the flanks, two fast, aggressive ends who are adept at snugging passers, lined up at their elbows will be Spider Johnson and Joe Kopcha, valiant tacklers, while George McCoy and Humpy Heywood will take their places on either side of Phillip Magevney, fleet little center.

However, it isn't going to be easy—this football lesson which Coach Thomas' boys have planned to give the Petrels. The team coached by Harry Robertson has an aversion to being given such grid medicine and it will take lots of persuasion and more force to get the notion down their protesting windpipes. Twenty-five strong they entrained for Chattanooga Wednesday night and from reports will be in the peak of condition.

Day football feast. Not one injury mars the strength of the invading eleven which Coach Robertson will have to play one of their best games in the season in order to come forth victorious.

In Cy Bell and McKissick the Petrels boast a pair of backs whose superior are not known in the S. I. A. A., and the Moccasins have trained long and hard in order to perfect a defense against their fierce charges.

While the locals are given the upper edge in pre-game featuring, the blue and gold jerseys are not going to have any walkaway affair and they will have to play one of their best games in the season in order to come forth victorious.

Sports Done Brown

BY NORMAN E. BROWN.
Sports Writer for Central Press and The Constitution.

The intersectional element in football has reached the point, apparently, where grid fans are becoming "choosy" regarding these clashes. The present season has witnessed two or three "flops" of this kind as far as general interest in the games has been involved.

The Michigan-Navy game at Baltimore last week was a case in point. The poor attendance (a total of less than $30,000) can not be ascribed entirely to the poor showing of the Navy, but rather to the fact that the game was not of the type which the fans were most interested.

When Ray Schalk was signed recently as assistant manager to John McGraw, the Giant boss, it was generally accepted, of course, that the veteran catcher would devote most of his time to improving the work of the younger New York hurlers, the men on whom McGraw must rely for now.

As a matter of fact, however, Schalk probably will spend much time teaching the young players the intricacies of the game, the fine points of catching, the proper use of the bat, and the proper use of the glove.

Hogan, the rookie backstop who figured in the Hornsby deal a year ago, showed much promise in his first season. He proved a real power of strength in the Giant lineup, partly because of his heavy hitting, but also because of a finished catcher, however.

He has a powerful whip, but has not mastered the art of getting the ball away quickly to the bases, to nip runners. McGraw himself labored long with Hogan last spring to teach him the gentle art of running down a baserunner and then "putting it on him."

The Giant leader had to toss Hogan into the breach at the start of the season with his education incomplete. Schalk knows the way to a pitcher's success is through the catcher, or something like that.

Koepke Is Elected Captain of Navy

Annapolis, Md., November 28.—(AP) Lyle K. Koepke, of Flint, Mich., was elected captain of the naval academy 1929 football team at a meeting held last night. The election was kept secret until it was announced this afternoon by athletic officials of the academy.

Koepke, who has played guard during the last four games, is a member of the class of 1929.

Methodist Road Race Set at Emory Today

Duke University Hopeful of Winning Event; Millsaps Sends Harrier Team.

Representatives of four Methodist schools of the Southeast arrived at Emory university last night to compete in the Southern Methodist road race, which will be held at Emory at 10 a. m. today.

Duke university is here, expecting to add to the laurels of a season of ready overwhelming success. The North Carolinians hope to add the Southern Methodist championship to the victories which they already have won over North Carolina, the Southern conference champs; Navy, and Washington and Lee.

Millsaps college and Emory Junior college from Valdosta have sent their first teams to this race and will fight for a good place. Birmingham-Southern is confident of coming back after dropping from first to third place last year. Emory university, the only local team in the race, hopes at the very worst to hold the second place which it won last year.

Besides these, two runners from the North Georgia Agricultural school will run unattached, not being eligible for any of the prizes. Medals will be given to the first ten men in finish, and a handsome bronze statuette will be awarded the winner of the team competition.

Petrels Leave for Chattanooga With Hopes of Winning From Moccasins.

BY ELMO HAMBY.

The complaining squad, but two steps removed from the sick list and the customary "Out of the game" late Wednesday, Oglethorpe's Oglethorpe guard, and his substitute, Harry Feinberg, with the result that the battered Petrels today may face the University of Chattanooga Moccasins with a third-choice guard.

A squad of 25 entertained Wednesday night for Chattanooga, where the birds will meet their old enemies with all odds against them in their hardest game of the season. While it is not probable that a victory over Chattanooga would aid the Petrel title claims in the S. I. A. A., they perhaps would not mind slapping the Snakes off the top-notch position.

The never-to-be-forgotten drama of their last game will be experienced today by four seniors, Jimmy Sims, guard, and Jake Malady, center, co-captains; Lindsay Vaughan, center, and Monk Clements, end. All good players, these four will hear the referee's whistle for the last time under the Gold and Black.

Cy Bell, howitzer of the Petrel offense, is expected again to prove an outstanding star. He will be teamed with Lautzenheiser, ace of the Moccasins, who last year brought desperation into the Petrel camp by his ability to yearn, to use the word of the more or less thin air.

Oglethorpe's second offensive line will present Lyman Fox, Claude Herin and Lindsay Vaughan, center, co-captains; Lindsay Vaughan, center, and Monk Clements, end. All good players, these four will hear the referee's whistle for the last time under the Gold and Black.

Players who left for Chattanooga Wednesday night are Asa Wall, Heywood, and McKissick, three youngsters who have nice records for the season. Barrett and Overmyer, two Chattanooga stars, also will see service.

The Crimson Hurricane players of the Atlanta university, conquerors of the five-year Tuskegee champions, Clark university, will meet their most ancient rivals, the Morris Brown university Wolverines, on Spiller's field at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

BROWN-ATLANTA COLORED GRID CLASSIC TODAY

During the last two years the Atlanta university and Morris Brown, neither team registering a tally.

These two colored college teams ran, among the best in the country and whenever they meet the games are replete with thrills.

Atlanta university crushed Clark university's hopes on Spiller's field last Saturday and today will attempt to vanquish Morris Brown. Wiggins, Melton, the tackle, and Main, the field man, are depended upon to turn the trick. The purple colors of Morris Brown will also have Tyler, Adams, the tackle, and Main, the field man, are depended upon to turn the trick. The purple colors of Morris Brown will also have Tyler, Adams, the tackle, and Main, the field man, are depended upon to turn the trick.

Captain White will be at one of the wing positions. He is a power on interference.

The Clemson, veterans of many years playing, will be at tackle. His work this season has been outstanding. He is rated as one of the best backs in the South.

Coach Cannady is optimistic about the outcome of today's game.

Bill Nicks, who finished the institution last year, returned this year as assistant to Coach Cannady.

Pen meetings at both schools have been in session throughout the week and today is the last day of the student body. Old grads of Morris Brown have begun pouring into town to witness the purple colors in battle.

Pacific Coast Ump Goes to Big League

Los Angeles, November 28.—(AP)—George Magerkurth, Pacific Coast Baseball league umpire, has been sold to the National league for the reported price of $2,500.

Magerkurth joined the Coast league's umpiring staff at the age of 21 in 1927 season. He was free agent at the time, having drawn his release from the American association.

Harry A. Williams, president of the league, who has gone east to attend the minor and major league meetings, may sign a final paper on the transaction while in New York.

New York, November 28.—(AP)—Carlaris, a winner of the rich Cofroth stakes, has been sold to B. F. Jones, of the Audley farm, by W. T. Anderson, for $100,000.

The English-bred thoroughbred will be mated to a number of famous matrons on the Audley farm.

Carlaris is one of the true blues of the thoroughbred world. He is a son of the great English horse, Phalaris, which sired, among others, Coronach, an English derby winner, and Warden of the Marshes, another crack English racer.

Carlaris won a fortune for Anderson when he captured the Cofroth handicap. The purse approximated $100,000 and in addition Anderson backed his entry heavily at odds of 40, 20 and 10.

Brittain Gets First Definite Word of Game

Message Takes for Granted That Tech Will Play in Pasadena New Year's Day.

Berkeley, Calif., November 27.—(Special).—The following telegram was dispatched today by President W. W. Campbell, of the University of California, to President M. L. Brittain, of Georgia Tech. Though there seems to have been some delay of acceptance on the part of the Georgia school there appears to be no doubt from this telegram that the University of California is planning to meet the Golden Tornado on New Year's day.

Dr. Marion Luther Brittain, President Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

"I learn with satisfaction that the football team of the Georgia School of Technology will engage in friendly competition with the University of California at Pasadena on New Year's day in response to an invitation issued by the executive officer of the Pasadena stadium organization, a similar invitation having been accepted for the California team by the executive committee of the Associated Students, University of California, with my prior approval.

Your team and other representation of Georgia, including its president I hope, will receive hearty welcome in California and I wish that the travel route might be the shortest possible. In following the Pasadena organization's selection of competing teams the organization has placed a complete administration of New Year's game with the associated students, University of California, William W. Monahan, general manager.

This means that the event will be thoroughly academic in character and that highest possible standards in all respects will be maintained. The splendid type of sportsmanship represented by the young men in all our southeastern states is well known to me. A message assuring participation of Georgia's team will be welcome.

"William Wallace Campbell, President, U. of California."

First Tangible Clue Is Disccovered.

BY DICK HAWKINS.

Like the desert wanderer who sees mirages for many thirty days then finally stumbles into a real oasis, supporters of Georgia Tech who want to see the Tornado blow westward for the Tournament of Roses now have something tangible to question their erstwhile skepticism. In fact they have a whole mouthful to use the common expression.

Though at a late hour Wednesday night officials at Georgia Tech did not receive the formal invitation referred to in the above message of good will, the telegram at best offers a strong suggestion that one of the principals in this Rosey problem.

No matter what doubt may exist around these parts regarding Tech's intention to visit the Rose Bowl, the next whoopee day there seems to be no doubt whatever in the mind of California university's governing executive, His excellency Dr. B. B. St. John, that the matter will be settled.

Most felicitous and bears a genuine tone of welcome. One thing that causes considerable controversy among those who do not understand the situation is made particularly clear in the message from Dr. Campbell. He states that the entire proposition has been turned over to the University of California, thus doing away with all talk of commercial enterprise. It is to be understood that the Tournament association does not stage the game for profit, but rather for the purpose of turning everything over to the interested schools.

Regardless of where the actual invitation is at the present moment, the above telegram puts the matter on a basis definite enough to arouse considerable interest in just what has to be done before the Tornado can "see or not." At least three important moves must be made. First, the Georgia Tech Athletic association composed of 11 members picked from the faculty, students and alumni must vote on the matter. Second, the faculty council of 35 members must sanction the trip. Third, the conference must vote on the project and give permission for Tech to play the game.

Tech officials, naturally, will make no statement until the invitation has been received but it is understood unofficially that there is little question of everything going through in due time. The matter of conference sanction can only be judged by precedent established on two occasions when the University of Alabama was granted the privilege of playing a post-season game in the Rose Bowl. This may not mean that the matter will go through the conference mill without a hitch, but it at least offers a basis of argument.

All in all it appears that Georgia Tech is one step nearer a western invasion. Who'll make the next move?

Turkey and Football

FOR those of us who are still able to reach a stadium after gormandizing on turkey there will be considerable football to be seen today. Most of Atlanta and vicinity will be at Grant Field to see Tech and Auburn or at the municipal stadium in Birmingham, where Georgia and Alabama meet in their annual argument.

From a standpoint of conference honors the most sanguine see little bearing in these two battles, but sometimes it is interesting to look at the possibilities rather than the probabilities. Just for fun let's consider what might happen today.

Auburn might beat Georgia Tech. Stranger things have happened in this funny game of football. Then Alabama might—and this is no remote possibility—beat the Bulldogs in Birmingham. If this happens the game between Tech and Georgia next week will have a very large bearing on the conference title. Figuring that Tennessee or Florida will be eliminated when they play each other in the final game and that one of them may be knocked off before that time the conference race would be in a grand muddle. That would leave Alabama in a position to talk a lot if Georgia beats Tech.

These things are not likely to happen, but it doesn't do any harm to just suppose. What really should happen is a comparatively easy victory for Tech and a very hard victory for Alabama. This last prediction will not meet with unanimous approval. There are many who believe the Bulldog team, with fewer hospital men on the squad, is a great match for the Tide. Perhaps there is wisdom in that idea, but it appears from this distance that the superior line of the Tidesmen will swing the balance in their direction.

The Bulldog team this season has been "in and out" with great frequency. At times they have flashed brilliantly and at other times they have been sadly lacking in teamwork. Georgia is possessed of a very fine squad of individual football players. When they get the machine going it will take more than Alabama has to beat them, but today seems hardly the time to expect Georgia's best game. There are a few changes in the lineup that may or may not pan out. They are still suffering from the shock to morale sustained in the L. S. U. defeat and it hardly seems probable that they will recover fully before the Tech game next week.

Now to the Atlanta game. A victory for Auburn would be something of an upset to be very mild about it, but nothing is impossible. Like all the other teams Tech plays this year, the Plainsmen have nothing to lose and national recognition to gain. Since Tech has been mentioned as the opponent of California in the Rose Bowl, a victory now over the Tornado would flash the name of the victor across the continent. And Auburn has one of these "coming" football teams. Each game this year they have been a bit better. Coach Bohler has them on top for the Tech battle, while the Jackets will hardly be keyed up for the game. Those items all count and it is entirely possible that Tech will have to exert every ounce of its strength to win today.

Another Step

SLOWLY but surely the haze is clearing away from the Rose bowl mud-dle that has been hanging on the football horizon for two days. It is now definitely announced that President W. W. Campbell, of the University of California, will send a formal invitation to Tech to play his team at the tournament of roses.

So far so good. That is one thing entirely definite. Tech will receive the formal invitation. Will Tech accept? We are in no position to say just at present, but our opinion is that Tech will. So signal an honor could hardly be turned down without due cause and if there is sufficient cause there is no evidence of it on the surface open to the public. It seems that Tech is getting closer to California every day.

Tarheel Harriers Virginia Tennis Defeat Virginia Team Beats N. C.

Charlottesville, Va., November 28.—(AP)—The University of North Carolina cross-country squad, southern conference champions, won with ease today against the harriers of the University of Virginia, the score standing 20 to 35, this contest beginning a series of athletic events which will culminate with the annual and careful gridiron battle between the two institutions on Lambert field here tomorrow afternoon.

Henderson, Tarheel star, won the cross-country event, running the five and a quarter-mile course in 27 minutes, 48 seconds, and breaking the course record established this fall by Smith, of V. M. I., whose time was 29 minutes and 40 seconds.

Berkley, of Carolina, was second in today's race, while Ochs, of Virginia, ran third. Other runners in their order of finishing were: Fisher, Carolina; Hutchesson, Virginia; Wrenn, Carolina; Lowry, Carolina; Melhann, Thornton, and Thayer, Virginia.

Singles summaries: Smith, Virginia, defeated Shapiro, Carolina, 6-3, 6-4; Yonason, Carolina, defeated Johns, Virginia, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4; Wiltshired, Virginia, defeated Scott, Carolina, 6-3, 6-4; Mervort, Virginia, defeated Martin, Carolina, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4; Mervort, Virginia, defeated Doyle, Virginia, 6-3, 11-11, 6-4; Beasley, Virginia, defeated Lautner, Carolina, 6-3, 6-4, 7-5.

Doubles: Smith and Wiltshired, Virginia, defeated Scott and Shapiro, Carolina, 6-3, 10-8; Mervitt and Yonason, Carolina, defeated Johns and Mervort, Virginia, 6-3, 6-4.

Colorful Games To Close Season in Many Sections Today

Plenty Action Is Assured In All Parts

'Big Three' of Southern Conference Should Keep Sates Clean, Says Alan Gould.

BY ALAN J. GOULD.
(Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance and The Constitution.)
New York, November 28.—(AP)—Feast or famine, win or lose, there will be plenty of Thanksgiving day action on college grids. Except for a few big games yet to be played in the east, south and far west, it will bring the season to a colorful climax.

Championship games will add zest to the holiday occasion in five of the major areas. The big battle is over, so far as title awards are concerned, in the Pacific coast and Big Ten conferences, but important decisions are expected in the eastern sector as well as in the Southern, Southwestern, Rocky Mountains and Big Six conferences.

For those ardent adherents whose football appetite is still keen, in spite of lessened interest in the championship angle of the situation there will be the flavor of old traditions in abundance, especially for such eastern classics as Cornell-Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, Colgate-Brown at Providence, where they play at 10 a. m. tomorrow; West Virginia-Washington and Jefferson at Morgantown, and Pittsburgh-Penn State at Pittsburgh.

South Has Many Games.

Nowhere will championship contention have more widely assorted tests than in the south, where all 22 members of the Southern conference jump into action. Twenty of them play among themselves while Maryland and Clemson, the other two, have traditional foes in Johns Hopkins and Furman as their excuse for leaving the family circle on a holiday.

Georgia Tech, Tennessee and Florida, the "Big Three," Dixie, all undefeated and tied, look strong enough to maintain this pace. Tech faces a mediocre Auburn eleven and Florida's steamroller bumps into a Washington and Lee team that is below the general standard. No upsets are expected here but Tennessee encounters rugged opposition in Kentucky. The Vols are favorites, but they may need to put on full pressure to win and keep their status in anticipation of the final and crucial clash with Florida on December 8.

The two other teams unbeaten in Southern conference are Alabama State and Virginia Poly, meet old and formidable rivals in Tulane and Virginia Military, respectively. On the strength of their record they are favored, but not by one-sided margins. It would hardly be an upset for either Tulane or V. M. I. to win.

Nebraska is an old-fashioned favorite to clinch the Missouri Valley Big Six championship by conquering Kansas State, but the same thing cannot be said for the prospects facing two other leaders—Texas in the Southwest and Utah in the Rocky mountain zone.

Texas Must Beat Aggies.

The Texas Long Horns must beat the Texas Aggies, 1927 champions, to have a clear claim to the Southwest conference crown after an interval of several years. Utah, unbeaten as yet but tied twice, is no more than an even choice against the Utah Aggies, who have little ambitions themselves.

Should the Aggies defeat Utah they would reach the top and tie with Colorado university, providing the latter disposes of DePaul.

The big intersectional engagement of the day offers a final test to the claims of New York university to national recognition. The Violets, minus the services of their star tackle and

Thanksgiving Day Meetings.

Even in an uncertain season, which is what all football seasons are, most of the day's results seem to be pretty well settled in advance. Penn should certainly take Cornell; N. Y. U. should beat the Oregon Aggies; West Virginia should outpoint N. Y. J. Georgia Tech looks more than one touchdown better than Auburn; Florida's fast team looks safe enough; Georgetown looks too good for Fordham; Vanderbilt will have no trouble with Sewanee. But there are others not quite so certain. Columbia and Syracuse are not far apart; Tennessee has a hard game with Kentucky; Georgia and Alabama are not far apart in playing strength; V. P. I., V. M. I. and Virginia-North Carolina are not far apart.

There are not so many real upsets in football, but if Pennsylvania, Georgia Tech, Florida, Vanderbilt, Georgetown or N. Y. U. is beaten, it will be an upset of the first order. Stranger things have happened and one or more of these may fall—but that isn't the way it looks before the kickoff.

Nearing the End.

Two of the big games Saturday will be Army-Stanford in New York and Notre Dame-University of Southern California at Los Angeles. But even these contests don't close out the season, as Georgia Tech and Georgia, Tennessee and Florida meet on December 8, to close out the southern zone, which has presented its best all-around strength from any season.

If Florida and Tennessee win today this battle at Knoxville next week will bring about the clash of two unbeaten teams, both high class. There are few better backs than Crabtree, of Florida, and McVey, of Tennessee.

It is just as well that the season is almost over, as any number of the non-combatants or sidelines are beginning to froth at the mouth, the first sign of late autumn rabies. If the campaign lasted many weeks longer the handful of them would have to be chained up and muzzled.

Washington and Washington State have their own private argument to settle, with State showing somewhat the better record but the Huskies relying on the individual prowess of "Chuck" Carroll to turn the tide. ## Thanksgiving Day Featured By Football, Dinners and Parties

Thanksgiving is a holiday proclaimed by the president of the United States, and is closely associated with the Pilgrim Fathers, the Tech-Auburn football game, family dinners at which turkey and cranberry sauce will be the piece de resistance. Tech's gold and white banners will vie with Auburn's orange and streamers, held aloft this afternoon by loyal supporters occupying stadium seats encircling Grant Field. Misses Dorothy Sliff, Florence Eckford and Mary Preacher compose the trio of beautiful young girls selected to sponsor the Golden Tornado on Thanksgiving day, this particular game having claimed exciting interest for many years among the admiring fans of both colleges assembling annually to witness the clash between Tech and Auburn.

Georgia's chief executive, Governor Hardman, and Mrs. Hardman, the first lady of the state, and their charming daughters, Misses Josephine, Sue Colquitt and Emma Griffin Hardman, and their son, Lamartine Hardman, Jr., motored yesterday to their home in Narcoossee Valley to spend Thanksgiving hiking over Yonah with an old-fashioned dinner served at midday, the family sitting down to a feast of delicious viands prepared by famous cooks. Miss Josephine Hardman, who is a student at Shorter college, and Lamartine Hardman, who attends University of Georgia, arrived in Atlanta early Wednesday to join their family.

Family Reunions

Family reunions will draw loved ones closer together around the festive board and Mayor and Mrs. Ragsdale will spend a quiet day at their home on Morningside drive enjoying a mid-day dinner after which they will attend the Tech-Auburn game. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Hinman will entertain at dinner today at their home on Fifteenth street, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Rawson, Miss Nannette Griffith, A. W. Hill and Willard McBurney, and Thomas P. Hinman, Jr.

Give Thanks Today

Today is set aside to give thanks for the blessings which the giver of good and perfect gifts has bestowed upon this city during the past year. It is a day for general thanksgiving and prayer when people shall cease from daily work and in homes and places of worship devoutly give thanks to the Almighty for the many and great blessings received. In this day of speed, spice and sparkle, with the scenes of daily life shifting with greater rapidity than ever before, it is indeed becoming that the nation should express grateful recognition and acknowledgement for the material prosperity and the growth of spiritual blessings. Those Pilgrim forefathers and foremothers had their share of burdens and anxieties, yet were thankful for the mercies bestowed upon them and lifted their voices in sincere and heart thanksgiving. The following prayer, written by the late Robert Louis Stevenson, is indeed expressive of the season and reads:

"We thank Thee for this place in which we dwell; for the love that unites us; for the peace accorded us this day; for the hope with which we expect the morrow; for the health, the work, the food, and the bright skies that make our lives delightful; for our friends in all parts of the earth; and our fellow helpers in this foreign isle. Give us courage and gaiety and the quiet mind. Spare to us our friends, so often to our enemies. Bless us, if it may be, in all our innocent endeavors. If it may not, give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune, and down to the gates of death, loyal and loving to one another."

Miss Lemcke Weds Hamilton Stockton.

The marriage of Miss May Louise Lemcke and Hamilton Stockton was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the parsonage of the Ponce de Leon Baptist church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Luther Christie in the presence of the families and a few close friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Stockton will spend their honeymoon motoring through western North Carolina.

Baron DeKalb D. A. R. To Sponsor Party.

Baron de Kalb chapter, D. A. R., will sponsor a benefit bridge party Friday afternoon, November 30, at 2:30 o'clock at the Woman's club in Decatur. Reservations may be made through Mesdames John Montgomery, Dearborn 0214; Mrs. Dana Burgess, Dearborn 3903-J; and Mrs. Robert Pope, Dearborn 3678-W. Players are requested to carry cards and pencils.

Fat Comes at Forty

Fat Need Not Come

Science has found the reason why people grow fat. That reason lies largely in a defective gland. It is some that trouble comes in early years, but to most people after 40.

A certain gland, which largely controls nutrition, becomes weak. Then food, which should go into fuel and energy, deposits itself as fat.

No starvation, no over-work, can rectify this condition. Both are harmful. The way to cure is to activate an under-active gland. Physicians the world over now import...

They use the medicine employed in Marmol's secret process. They are based on scientific research and the cause of over-eating. It forces the under-active gland to work properly. Food now goes to the proper use. It does not "pile up" as fat. You can see the results in every article. An over-weight man becomes a slim, active man. A woman becomes a slim, active woman. It is the only way to get rid of fat.

Do not waste your money on going to the doctor. Do not waste your money on buying a diet. Do not waste your money on buying a medicine. Buy Marmol's secret process. It is the only way to get rid of fat. It is the only way to become slim and active. It is the only way to live longer and happier.

Do not waste your money on going to the doctor. Do not waste your money on buying a diet. Do not waste your money on buying a medicine. Buy Marmol's secret process. It is the only way to get rid of fat. It is the only way to become slim and active. It is the only way to live longer and happier.

Marmola's secret process is the only way to get rid of fat. It is the only way to become slim and active. It is the only way to live longer and happier. Buy Marmol's secret process today. It is the only way to get rid of fat. It is the only way to become slim and active. It is the only way to live longer and happier.

Blackfriars Will Present Three One-Act Plays

The Blackfriars at Agnes Scott college will present in the Bucher Scott auditorium a group of three one-act plays at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, December 1. Each of the three represents a different type of drama. "The first, 'Ever Young,' is an interesting half-comedy, half-tragedy piece, written by Alice Gesterberg. In it, four distinguished women of some 50 or 60 years, but in spirit ever young, enjoy spending a few hours after dinner chatting in a corner of the lobby of a fashionable hotel at Palm Beach. Through their innocent gossip a near tragedy occurs and a miracle results. "Grandma Pulls the String," by Edith Delano and David Carle, is the second to be played. This is comedy throughout and portrays very realistically the prying of a meddling family into daughter's love affair. "Will-o-the-Wisp," the third play that Blackfriars will present, is fantastical in its plot.

The casts for the three plays are as follows: "Ever Young": "Mrs. Payne-Dexter," Belle Ward Stowe, Charlotte, N. C.; "Mrs. Dorchester," Shirley McPhaul, Charlotte, N. C.; "Mrs. Blanchard," Mary Louise Thomas, Charleston, W. Va.; "Mrs. Courtney-Page," Aileen Moore, Morristown, Tenn. "Grandma Pulls the String": "Grandma Blessington," Polly Vaughn, Atlanta; "Mrs. Cummings," Helen Sisson, Wino, Miss; "Hildegard Cummings," Jeanette Shaw, Gainesville, Fla.; "Julia Cummings," Margaret Ogden, Mobile, Ala.; "Nona Cummings Heaver," Helen McLaurine, Laurel, Miss.; "William Thornton," Ruth Malory, Decatur. "Will-o-the-Wisp": "The White-Faced Girl," Louise Robertson, Uniontown, Ala.; "The Country Woman," Marion Green, Asheville, N. C.; "The Poet's Wife," Sara Carter, Decatur; "The Sewing Maid," Louise Chandler, Washington, D. C.

Agnes Scott Alumnae To Honor Miss Young.

Agnes Scott alumnae will give a tea Friday, November 30, to celebrate the birthday of Miss Anna Young, and the alumnae of Atlanta and Decatur and those visiting in the community are invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. For several years it has been a custom of the Alumnae association to honor the memory of Miss Young, who was a beloved member of the faculty of Agnes Scott and for whom the Anna Young Alumnae house was named. Since Miss Young's birthday, November 25, falls near Thanksgiving a number of the alumnae return to visit at the college, the celebration is made an annual "homecoming tea."

Invitations have been issued to the Agnes Scott Alumnae clubs of Atlanta, Decatur, Marietta, Birmingham, Savannah and Columbus; to the heads of various campus organizations; to the presidents of the four classes; to the "Granddaughters"—students whose mothers attended Agnes Scott; and to other friends of the college. Mrs. Arthur Beall, chairman of the entertainment committee, and Mrs. S. Quarry Stokes, chairman of the house committee, will be hostesses and in the receiving line will be Mesdames Samuel Young, mother of Miss Young; J. J. Egan and Paul Brown, sisters of Miss Young; W. W. Anderson, vice president of the alumnae association, and Miss Nannette Hopkins, dean of the college.

Charles Wade Johnson Celebrates Birthday.

Mrs. William Collin Matthews, aunt of the host; Mrs. A. E. Foster and Miss Jean Johnson assisted in entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Keeler Entertain at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Keeler entertained at dinner Saturday evening at their home, Tranquilla, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Malcolm, Mr. and Mrs. Bolan Glover and Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Keeler. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Keeler entertained the following: additional guests with moving picture scenes: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leake, Mrs. W. A. DuPre, William DuPre, Mrs. Georgia Kay Sullivan, John Graham and A. V. Cortelion.

Mrs. Morgan McNeel, Sr., was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club at luncheon on Wednesday at her home on Cherokee street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crouch and children left Wednesday for Davidson, Ga., where they will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dozier.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Glover are visiting in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lucy Turner is spending Thanksgiving and the week-end with relatives in Easton, Ga.

Miss Omar Cox has returned to Brenau college after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Edwards, of Anniston, Ala., arrived Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with their sister, Mrs. Bolan Glover, and attend the Tech Auburn game.

Mrs. A. L. Matthews, of Orlando, Fla., is the guest of Mrs. T. A. Cole on McDonald street.

Miss Susie Herrong is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with relatives in Hiawasee, Tenn.

Miss Myrtle York is visiting in Clarksville, Ga.

James C. Howell, of Chattanooga, Tenn., is the guest of his sisters, the Misses Howell, on Kenosaw avenue.

A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION FOR SIXTY-ONE YEARS

Wishes All Georgia Thanksgiving Cheer!

God's own land, where the good things grow,
The Horn o' Plenty's the horn we blow
In Georgia.

—FRANK L. STANTON.

New Georgia Homes!

A "First Thanksgiving Day" will be kept in nearly 4,000 new Georgia homes, built in 1928 at a cost of about $27,000,000.

Investment in Youth!

Twenty-five years ago there were only 50 Georgia High Schools. Today, state high school students in military formation would require, at the rate of 1,000 an hour, more than three days to pass a given point.

Georgia's 1928 expenditure for education—common and vocational schools, state supported colleges and experimental stations—is $8,256,640, an increase within four years of nearly $3,000,000.

An Open Road For All!

In road building, Georgia's record for the past four years has been phenomenal. At the beginning of 1928 estimated revenue for highways was $13,500,000, an increase over 1924's expenditure of 1100%!

The state ranks seventh among all states of the Union and second among Southern states in the mileage of Federal Aid Highways completed. The result is that Georgians now enjoy more than 3,250 miles of improved and hard-surfaced roads.

Fulton County has the distinction of owning more miles of hard-surfaced road than any other county of the United States.

Among the "Mighty Anvils of the World!"

Georgia industries, now estimated at $750,000,000, show a 3-year increase of 24%, and a 28-year increase of 698%.

Among all industrial products of Georgia, the textile output, as befits a "cotton country," is the leader, its valuation being one-third of the whole. Next in order, come products of foundries, oil mills, furniture factories, flour and grist mills, and lumber plants.

Investments in manufacturing plants, now valued at half a billion dollars, is more than 5 times what it was at the "turn of the century."

1928 additions to Industrial Georgia are:

Artificial silk plant at Rome, $4,000,000.

Automobile assembling plant, Atlanta, $2,225,000.

Plant daily producing 60 carloads of limestone, Perry.

Silk hosiery mill now in progress, Columbus.

"Farms Are the Founders of Civilization!"

Georgia has over 12,000,000 acres adaptable to general farm crops. With $250,000 spent yearly in research agricultural work, the yield from these acres should steadily increase the "joys that better living brings."

King Cotton holds his own in the good year 1928—with a crop of 995,000 bales, valued at $100,000,000.

Though 1927 was a banner year for golden-leaved tobacco, which brought a $12,000,000 crop, 1928 sees an increase in output of 40,000,000 pounds.

Georgia 1928 leadership in the production of the old reliables, sweet potatoes—10,234,000 bushels—and watermelons—16,583 carloads—is still unchallenged. She leads all states of the Union.

More than doubled, as compared with 1927, are 1928 crops of apples, pears and pecans. Almost doubling last year's yield, Georgia peaches brought to Georgia coffers returns from 9,975,000 bushels.

The cow, the hog, the hen to the front! Georgia's success in diversifying is indicated by 1928 increase of 20% in hogs, 15% in poultry, 10% in numbers of cows, and 20% in output. Poultry products valued 6 years ago at $18,000,000 are now worth $40,000,000—a gain of 122%.

WEATHER DELAYS

PICKING OF COTTON

IN SOME SECTIONS

Washington, November 28.—(AP)—

Crop and weather conditions for the week ended yesterday as summarized

by the department of agriculture, show that picking the remaining cotton crop made rather slow advance in the western and northwestern portions of the belt, because of cool weather and wet fields, although the week was generally fair. In Arkansas the department reports that picking made good progress, with considerable still to pick in some east-central and northern portions of the states. In Mississippi the river harvest has been nearly completed.

Another Thing...

ABOUT HOPKINS BUNGALOWS. We will not tie you up with a ten or fifteen-year series of notes. With a reasonable cash payment, your notes will average, including interest and principal, just a few dollars more than the place would rent for and you have only to keep that up for four or five years, then you get your balance. We adopted this plan over 25 years ago and during that time only one client has had to give up his place and THAT was on account of a "family split-up." When you buy an auto you demand one that is built by a company with a reputation—surely you should exercise the same care in buying a home. Our reputation, which took years to build, is our most treasured possession and we are ever alert to keep it above reproach. We have a new bungalow at 1047 Amsterdam Ave., N. E. It is open today and anyone who is paying $50 to $85 rent can buy it. It is a beautiful 6-room home, thoroughly modern throughout, tile bath, best hardwood floors, etc. Will consider a vacant lot in trade, or will build on your lot and arrange terms. F. B. Hopkins & Son, Palmer Bldg., Owners and Builders.
